

17th Annual Conference--Michigan Council for History Education
Bringing History Home: Local Stories, Global Contexts
Ramada Lansing Hotel and Conference Center, 7501 W Saginaw Hwy, Lansing
Thursday, November 4, 2010
Session Proposal Application

The 2010 MCHE Annual Conference will explore the teaching and learning of history in different sites including classrooms (elementary, middle, high school), museums, and other public history sites. Conference sessions could address how local, state, national, and global histories are creatively explored or reinforced at these various sites as well as examine connections between literacy and teaching history. MCHE welcomes proposals that address this broad theme as well as submissions addressing other aspects of history education. Deadline for session proposals is August 15, 2010. Sessions accepted for the conference will be notified by September 8, 2010. All session presenters must register for the conference.
