

MCHE Session At a Glance

8:00-8:30 Registration
8:30-8:45 Welcome, American Room
8:45 -9:30 Opening Address: Teaching History IS Literacy Teaching, Or Why I Love the Core Standards! Dr. Robert B. Bain, American Room
	Delta East	Delta Central	Delta West	Capital
9: 40-10:30	When Fur Was King: The Great Lakes Fur Trade Katherine Cederholm, Mackinac State Historic Parks K-5	Social Networking in the History Mary Diegel and Kelly Eddy Livonia Franklin High School K-12	The World History Initiative: Using Local and National Cases to Teach Globally Charley Sullivan and Dr. Lauren McArthur Harris, University of Michigan 9-12	Up from the Bottoms: The Search for the American Dream Classroom David Klemm, Muskegon ISD
10:40-11:30	The American Experience: Bringing History Alive Meaghan Black, Thunder Bay National Marine Sanctuary K-5	Celebrating History: The War of 1812 Bicentennial & the Civil War Sesquicentennial” Jim McConnell, Michigan 1812 Bicentennial Commission Secretary & Michigan Historical Commission Member; David Hales, Michigan 1812 Commission Member & Wayne RESA; Maria Quinlan Leiby, Ph.D., Education Coordinator, Michigan Historical Center 6-12	Connecting Time and Place: Using the GeoHistoGram Dr. Michael Libbee, Central Michigan University 6-12	Henry Ford and Innovation Paula Gangopadhyay and Catherine Tuczec, The Henry Ford K-12
11:40-12:25 Keynote Address: The Uncommon School: Classrooms Without Borders , Dr. William S. Pretzer, American Room
12:25-1:25 Lunch and Awards, American Room
1:35-2:25	Using Post Visit Journal Writing to Scaffold Elementary School Students Museum Learning Denice Leach K-5	Glenn Beck’s History Lessons Rod Franchi, Novi High School K-12	Teaching about Genocide: The Case of the Khmer Rouge Charley Sullivan, University of Michigan 9-12	Tales of the Michigan Homefront Through National Archives Documents Kris Maldre, National Archives at Chicago 8-12
2:40-3:30	Going Deeper - Project Based Learning Cynthia Andrews, Ann Arbor Learning Community K-5	Michigan Citizenship Collaborative Curriculum-- An Overview David Hales Wayne RESA K-12	Arab World History and Arab Americans Janice Freij, Arab American National Museum K-12	McConnell and Gilder Lehrman Award Winners K-12
3:30-4:30 MCHE Board Meeting

